

Steve Sabom is on the clinical staff at the Counseling Center. He serves as evaluator, therapist and educator for the Turner Ministry Resource Center. He has a BA from Colorado College, a MDiv from Virginia Theological Seminary (Episcopal), a ThM in pastoral psychology from Duke Divinity School (Methodist) and a STD in pastoral psychology from San Francisco Theological Seminary (Presbyterian). His internship in pastoral psychology is from the Duke Medical Center, and his residency in marital and family therapy is from The Houston Family Institute. He is a Fellow in AAPC and a Clinical Member of AAMFT. He is a Supervisor-in-Training with AAMFT. He is licensed as a LPC in Texas and Georgia and as a LMFT in Texas.

He has served in an urban church counseling center and individual private practice as well as the Pennsylvania and Georgia Departments of Corrections. He was a book critic for The Houston Chronicle for 15 years and associate editor of the Journal of the American Academy of Psychotherapists. He is editor of Healing a Generation: The Vietnam Experience, NY: Guilford, 1990; contributing editor, Journal of Psychology and Theology; and formerly a contributing editor for International Journal of Near-Death Studies.